

PEACE AND COMPASSION ON THE FINAL JOURNEY

Caring for a loved one who is approaching the end of life is not the same as caring for someone who is going to get better.

Join us for this important discussion among a panel of experts about caring for a loved one who is nearing the end of life. Hosted by Visiting Nurse & Hospice of Fairfield County and the Wilton Library, this special program will feature an enlightening and compelling film by Barbara Karnes, RN, followed by a panel discussion moderated by Emmy award-winning broadcast journalist and best-selling author, Diane Smith.

Caregivers and other family members and loved ones will benefit from the informative and compassionate guidance they receive and learn how they can help to provide a caring and peaceful end-of-life experience for those they love.
